EXECUTIVE ORDERS, PROCLAMATIONS OF GENERAL APPLICABILITY, AND STATEMENTS
ISSUED BY THE GOVERNOR
PURSUANT TO A.R.S. § 41-1013(B)(3)

The Administrative Procedure Act (APA) requires the full-text publication of all Executive Orders and Proclamations of General Applicability issued by the Governor. In addition, the Register shall include each statement filed by the Governor in granting a commutation, pardon or reprieve, or stay or suspension of execution where a sentence of death is imposed. With the exception of egregious errors, content (including spelling, grammar, and punctuation) of these orders has been reproduced as submitted.

* LYNCH SYNDROME HEREDITARY CANCER AWARENESS DAY ***

[M11-90]

WHEREAS, Lynch Syndrome is an hereditary predisposition to a litany of cancers at a high lifetime risk, including an 85% lifetime risk of colon cancer, up to a 65% lifetime risk of endometrial cancer, and above average risks of contracting ovarian cancer, gastric tract cancers, hepatobiliary cancers, renal pelvic cancers, pancreatic cancer, prostate cancer, skin cancer, and brain cancer, often at an early age; and

WHEREAS, over 600,000 persons in the United States have Lynch Syndrome, but less than 5% of those persons are currently diagnosed; and

WHEREAS, knowing one's family medical history of cancers may prompt genetic testing; and

WHEREAS, a positive genetic test of Lynch Syndrome increases cancer screening, which in turn allows for early detection of cancers that can be treated or removed often before becoming life threatening; and

WHEREAS, thousands of lives will be saved as the result of public awareness and an early diagnosis of Lynch Syndrome.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Janice K. Brewer, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim March 30, 2011 as

* LYNCH SYNDROME HEREDITARY CANCER AWARENESS DAY ***

* ENDODONTISTS AWARENESS WEEK ***

[M11-85]

WHEREAS, Endodontists are dentists who specialize in root canal treatment, saving more than 17 million natural teeth each year; and

WHEREAS, serious medical conditions such as heart disease, stroke, and diabetes are often related to tooth loss and poor oral health.

WHEREAS, the American Association of Endodontists (AAS) showed that patients who had root canal treatment are six times more likely to describe it as “painless” than those who have not had the treatment; and

WHEREAS, contemporary root canal therapy is aimed at dispelling these long-standing myths and hopefully reducing anxiety around the procedure; and

WHEREAS, it is important for patients to understand that root canals actually relieve tooth pain and are much more comfortable today, thanks to the specialized training of endodontists and new technology.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Janice K. Brewer, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim March 27 – April 2, 2011 as

* ENDODONTISTS AWARENESS WEEK ***

* LIMB LOSS AWARENESS MONTH ***

[M11-87]

WHEREAS, there are approximately 2 million Americans living with limb loss or limb difference, and over 400 people in the United States lose a limb each day; and

WHEREAS, approximately 1,000 babies are born each year in the United States with congenital limb difference; and

Governor's Executive Orders/Proclamations

WHEREAS, diabetes and peripheral vascular disease are the leading causes of limb loss and studies show around 75 percent of limb loss is preventable; and

WHEREAS, the number of amputations per day will double by 2050, unless a major public awareness campaign is launched and key prevention initiatives put in place; and

WHEREAS, the Amputee Coalition of America provides education, outreach, advocacy, and a National Limb Loss Information Center for the benefit of persons with limb loss/difference, their families, and health care providers; and

WHEREAS, April will be an appropriate month to designate as National Limb Loss Awareness Month as spring is a time of renewal and inspiration.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Janice K. Brewer, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim the month of April 2011 as and encourage all Arizona citizens to join in recognizing the importance of this month and celebrating people with limb loss and limb difference living full and productive lives, expressing gratitude to caregivers who are a source of support and motivation, and saluting combat amputees who have lost their limbs while serving this country.

* MILITARY AVIATION WEEK ***

[M11-92]

WHEREAS, Arizona is rich in aeronautical history with Luke Air Force Base being the home of the fighter pilot since 1941 and Marine Corps Air Station (MCAS) Yuma established January 1, 1959. When the United States entered World War II, Luke became the largest fighter training base in the Air Corps and the facility at Yuma was one of the busiest flying schools in the nation; and

WHEREAS, Luke AFB has trained more than 56,450 pilots since 1941 and sent them to fight for our nation in World War II, Korea, Vietnam, the Persian Gulf, Afghanistan and Iraq; and currently trains the world's greatest F-16 fighter pilots and maintainers; and

WHEREAS, MCAS Yuma has protected our nation's skies for over 50 years, to include over 40,000 aircraft, 600,000 personnel and performed over 12 million operations; and

WHEREAS, the Luke AFB open house/air show takes place on March 19th and 20th, and the MCAS Yuma open house/air show occurs on March 26th continuing a tradition that has educated and entertained almost five million spectators on military aviation and the mission of the Air Force and Marine Corps over the past 57 years; and

WHEREAS, aviation is a key economic factor in Arizona's vitality both as an economic engine and as a transportation resource connecting Arizona to the international market while contributing to formidable job and fiscal growth within the state, including Luke Air Force Base and MCAS Yuma's contribution of over $2.5 billion to the state yearly in direct, indirect and induced economic impact; and

WHEREAS, Military Aviation in Arizona is a critical component of the state's transportation network and an essential part of our daily lives; and it is fitting to designate an official week whereby the efforts of all aviators, aviation professionals and the greatest historical strides accomplished by the Military and civilians will be so presented and properly recognized.
